KING GEORGE

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
KOMORN, VA., November 11.—Fossom and coon-hunting season has opened with earnest hereabouts, and the "big woods" are fairly alive with dogs and hunters from 8 to 12 o'clock every night. The rural folks in some sections are "living high" on coon and "possum meat" just now, and they will not be in a hurry to "kill hogs" as long as fat varmints are plentiful.

Foxes, after an absence of some six or eight years, have returned to this country in comparatively large numbers. They became so scarce some years ago that the hunters abandoned the keeping of hounds. For a long time there has not been more than two or three small packs in the county. But the appearance of foxes here again has already revived interest and enthusiasm, and several gentlemen are arranging to procure a number of fine hounds.

The new Baptist parsonage of Shiloh, this county is nearing completion, and will soon be ready for occupancy by Rev. J. H. Newbill and family.

The Episcopalians of this county are preparing to build a new rectory at the Court-house.

Mr. J. T. Minor, of this place, spent several days of this week in Baltimore purchasing merchandise for his month-mother. His wife accompanied him.

Mr. Joseph Perry, of Baltimore, is spending some time here. He is a colored divo, who owns and occupies a portion of the plantation in Westmoreland, on which President Monroe was born, enjoys the distinction of having seventeen living children.

Stewart is a widely known darkey, and is seen and interviewed by nearly all sight-seers who visit the old Monroe birth-place.
